

A Friendly Neighborhood

Mrs. Astor, Mrs. Basuri, Mr. Cruz, Miss Derringer, Mrs. Eriksen, and Mr. Feng each live in one of the six houses in the neighborhood shown. The houses are purple, brown, green, blue, yellow, and orange. From the residents' statements below, see if you can determine where every neighbor lives and what color house they live in.

Mrs. Eriksen: I live directly across the street from both a yellow house and a purple house.

Mr. Cruz: The house farthest from my house is blue.

Miss Derringer: There is a purple house due north of my house, but I can't see it from my house because there is a brown house in the way.

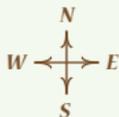

Mrs. Basuri: I can walk to Mrs. Eriksen's house without crossing any streets.

Mr. Cruz: I live due east of a green house.

Mrs. Astor: Mrs. Basuri lives due north of me.

A Friendly Neighborhood

Mrs. Astor, Mrs. Basuri, Mr. Cruz, Miss Derringer, Mrs. Eriksen, and Mr. Feng each live in one of the six houses in the neighborhood shown. The houses are purple, brown, green, blue, yellow, and orange. From the residents' statements below, see if you can determine where every neighbor lives and what color house they live in.

Mrs. Eriksen: I live directly across the street from both a yellow house and a purple house.

Mr. Cruz: The house farthest from my house is blue.

Miss Derringer: There is a purple house due north of my house, but I can't see it from my house because there is a brown house in the way.

Mrs. Basuri: I can walk to Mrs. Eriksen's house without crossing any streets.

Mr. Cruz: I live due east of a green house.

Mrs. Astor: Mrs. Basuri lives due north of me.